

Desinfectant in cluster

Task Description: Teat dipping

Comments of the employee:

✓

Comments of the employer: motivation regarding solution:

MSD risks:

Exposed areas:

Solutions:

- Without involving the milker, the disinfectant is applied to the teat through a separate channel in the cluster before automatic cluster removal. There are possible disadvantages to this sub-system in that the line inserts for this extra facility add weight to the cluster unit and increase its length, which could make attachment to the largest udders more difficult.

